Epainesis:

logoslergon: He talks about how they fought in foreign places and defended their homes.

fighting upon a foreign soil usually vanquish with ease men who are defending their homes.

dikaion:

progonoi: He talks about their ancestors and how they owe everything they have to them.

who added to their inheritance the empire which we now possess autochthones:

paideia: He says that they were ready to encounter anything, even death.

at Athens we live exactly as we please, and yet are just as ready to encounter every legitimate danger.

politeia: all of our people are heroic

Nor are these the only points in which our city is worthy of admiration.

arete:

Parainesis:

paramythetikon: He tells the living to be happier even though they are dead.

You, their survivors, must determine to have as unfaltering a resolution in the field, though you may pray that it may have a happier issue.
